

CHECKLIST

Use this list to check that you have met the requirements of the Act.

The Anti-Dumping Law of the Philippines requires that a properly documented application include the following information where it is reasonably available:

- ☐ The names of the Philippine producers making the application;
- ☐ The names of all known Philippine producers of like products;
- ☐ A description of the volume and value of the domestic production of the like products both by the producers making the application and all other known Philippine producers;
- ☐ A complete description of the allegedly dumped products;
- ☐ The names of the countries of origin or export of the allegedly dumped products;
- ☐ The names of each known exporter or foreign producer of the allegedly dumped products;
- ☐ The names of persons known to be importing the allegedly dumped products;
- ☐ Normal values of the allegedly dumped products when destined for consumption in the domestic markets of the countries of origin or export (or, where appropriate, either the prices at which the products are sold from the countries of origin for export to third countries, or the prices based on a constructed value);
- ☐ The export prices of the allegedly dumped products (or, where appropriate the prices at which the products are first resold in arm's length transactions in the Philippines;
- ☐ The import volumes into the Philippines of the allegedly dumped products;
- ☐ The effects that the imports of the allegedly dumped products have had, or will have, on prices of like products in the Philippines;
- ☐ The consequent impact of those imports on the industry; and
- ☐ Relevant factors affecting the industry that may have a bearing on the information required under the last two items above.